Polymath

David Harl is a modern day polymath. That is not an insult, it is actually a complementary description of someone who is very good at many different things. Sometimes a more common descriptor is “Renaissance Man” for someone that is talented in so many different areas as David is.

David came to saving faith as a child at First Baptist. In the ensuing years he has grown in his faith and talents. He is a very talented artist and musical performer. He, along with his brother Luke, wanted to provide a platform for local artists to perform in the community, and Live at Leo was developed. Not only did the Harl Brothers perform but they gave an opportunity for many others to display their talents.

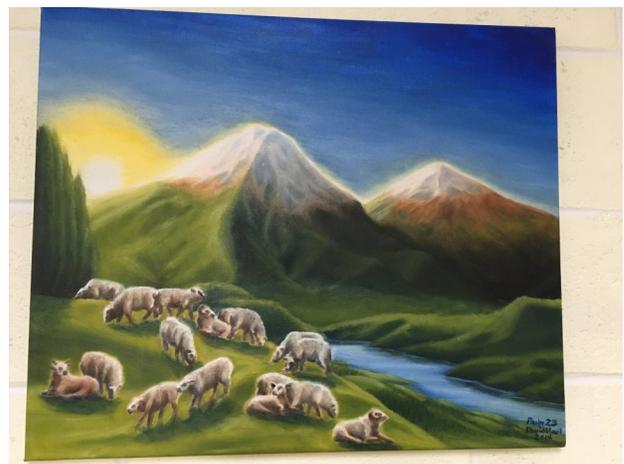

David has served with the Praise Team as both an instrumentalist as well as a vocalist. When he is home from school, you will find him serving in the music ministry.

While still in high school as part of the youth group David led students in a weekly Bible study. His desire to disciple his peers led to weekly studies in different homes that encouraged the students as well as the host families. David has also served in VBS the last few years, teaching the 4 and 5 years olds. He has a gift for teaching that shows in how he led the students to memorize scripture using rhythmic patterns.

David has an amazing talent in art as well. He is a gifted painter and has used art to demonstrate Biblical truth on many occasions.

This painting representing Psalm 23 is in the church office. It is just one of the many beautiful works of art that he has created. This summer he also worked with Bobby Kinney in his cabinetry business collaborating on beautiful woodworking projects. All these things in addition to his love of outdoors and gardening really display his range of knowledge and talents.

Recently, David traveled with a group of youth members and their families to Missouri on a rafting trip. During this trip he lead devotions along with his dad, Clint, leading the youth as he did before he went to college.

This summer David has been serving as an intern to Pastor Bennie. David is a student at Boyce College in Louisville Kentucky. David has served in a variety of ways this summer from working through sermon preparation with Bennie, preparing and preaching his own sermons two different weeks, developing evangelism strategy, and practicing pastoral care on visits to church members. All this practical experience is giving David insight to his calling to serve the church.

We are very blessed to have David serve our church and to witness how he has grown. We believe God has big plans to use David in our family. Please be praying for David as he returns to school and finishes his last year and how he will continue to use his talents to serve God.

As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace

Man of Sorrows, What a Name P.P. Bliss (1875)

Man of sorrows what a name for the Son of God, who came ruined sinners to reclaim:
Hallelujah, what a Savior!

Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
in my place condemned he stood,
sealed my pardon with his blood:
Hallelujah, what a Savior!

Guilty, helpless, lost were we;
blameless Lamb of God was he,
sacrificed to set us free:
Hallelujah, what a Savior!

He was lifted up to die;
"It is finished" was his cry;
now in heaven exalted high:
Hallelujah, what a Savior!

When he comes, our glorious King,
all his ransomed home to bring,
then anew this song we'll sing:
Hallelujah, what a Savior!

*And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with singing;
everlasting joy shall be upon their heads;
they shall obtain gladness and joy,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.*
Isaiah 35:10

This text moves us through the Gospel story.
The second verse focuses on our personal confession, and the third on our sinfulness and failures as a people. The fourth verse moves us from Christ's death to His resurrection and exaltation, and in the fifth verse we look for His coming again.
